

Crossword on the theme "Ecology"

other.

6. Substances that participate in large-scale production, chemical reactions used in industries.

7. If you throw a banana peel into the ground it will start ...

8. The dregs of plant, animal and mineral origin that accumulates in the home and communal economy, trade and industry contaminates the soil, air, soil and water and therefore usually subject to immediate removal and liquidation or disposal.

9. One of the most common power sources for small appliances and electronics, which decomposes decomposition 110 years and harm the environment, oxidized.

10. Natural oily flammable liquid with a specific smell which is used to make gasoline.

1. The science about the regularities of relationships between organisms, species, communities and environment.

2. Substances used to improve plant nutrition, soil properties and increase yields.

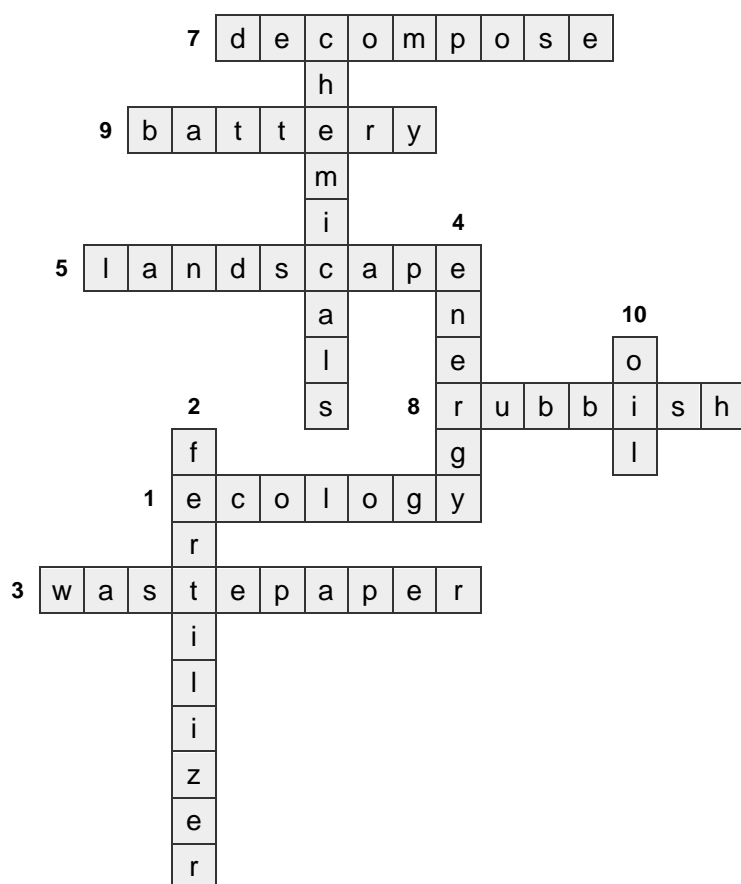

3. Wastes from the production, processing and consumption of paper and paperboard, suitable for use as fibrous raw material.

4. Light, heat and electricity – all types?

5. Natural geographical complex is defined as a relatively small and homogeneous specific surface area of the earth's limited natural boundaries within which natural ingredients are in complex interaction and fitted to each

Crossword on the theme "Ecology"

1. The science about the regularities of relationships between organisms, species, communities and environment.

2. Substances used to improve plant nutrition, soil properties and increase yields.

3. Wastes from the production, processing and consumption of paper and paperboard, suitable for use as fibrous raw material.

4. Light, heat and electricity – all types?

5. Natural geographical complex is defined as a relatively small and homogeneous specific surface area of the earth's limited natural boundaries within which natural ingredients are in complex interaction and fitted to each other.

6. Substances that participate in large-scale production, chemical reactions used in industries.

7. If you throw a banana peel into the ground it will start ...

8. The dregs of plant, animal and mineral origin that accumulates in the home and communal economy, trade and industry contaminates the soil, air, soil and water and therefore usually subject to immediate removal and liquidation or disposal.

9. One of the most common power sources for small appliances and electronics, which decomposes decomposition 110 years and harm the environment, oxidized.

10. Natural oily flammable liquid with a specific smell which is used to make gasoline.

